

Constitution of the New Mexico VHF Society

The purpose of this Society shall be to foster and develop operations on VHF, UHF, and microwave radio bands within the state of New Mexico, exchange technical information, and to coordinate operating events including contests. The name of this organization shall be the New Mexico VHF Society. This society shall be affiliated with the American Radio Relay League.

Article I: Membership

All licensed amateur radio operators interested in technical advancement, contesting, and weak-signal VHF, UHF, and Microwave communications are eligible for membership. Membership shall be administered under the terms defined in the Society By-Laws.

Article II: Publication of Record

The Society website is NMvhf.org and shall be the official information channel of the New Mexico VHF Society. All notices, announcements, and other items of official business shall be posted at this location as defined by the Society By-Laws. Email notification may be used to alert members of business issues posted on the website.

Article III: Officers

The officers of the New Mexico VHF Society shall be a President and a Secretary. Officer election process, duties, terms, removal, and replacement of vacancies shall be defined by the Society By-Laws.

Article IV: Meetings

The NM VHF Society shall meet at least once each year as defined in the Society By-Laws.

Article V: Dues

There are no dues charged to Society members. Financing of the Society expenses, if any, shall be fulfilled by individual contributions on a voluntary basis. There shall be no solicitation.

Article VI: Amendments

The Society Constitution and By-Laws may be amended as defined in the By Laws only at an annual meeting, by a two-thirds majority of attendee vote. The process of amending Society By-Laws and or Constitution shall be defined by the Society By-Laws.

Promulgated: 22 November 2016